any adequate description of the rain that followed in their train. As far up the country as we have any news from them, they continue to lay waste the whole region through which they pass, and kill unoffending citizens. Conscious that justice cannot be done to the subject, it is best to pause right here.

Sheridan's Great Victory.

The splendid victory of the Federal arms under Maj. Gen. Sheridan, in the Valley of Virginia, is without a parallel in the history of this war. Indeed the success is so magnificent as to more than cancel all the severses we ever met with in the Shenandoah my. The effect must be crushing upon Lee's army traitors pretending to be Union men. in Virginia.

We are indebted to Secretary Stanton for keeping us posted both of the days in which this terrible fight was going on. We were in bed sick, but either this news or the medicine given as cared as in 24 hours. It seems that Sheridan made the attack upon the rebel forces at Bunker Hill, some twelve miles north of Winehester-fought them two days-drivunder the command of Early and Breckinridge. The slaughter of the rebels was very great, their dead and wounded falling into our hands, as they ingloriously fled, routed, whipped and utterly demoralized. Full detals have not been received up to the time of this writing, but enough is known to warrant the assertion that the rebel loss in killed and wounded is really fearful. The second dispatch to us from the Secretary of War gives the reader a correct idea of the work accomplished up to the close of the second day:

Washington, Sept. 21.

Dr. W. G. Brownlow —Gen. Sheridan reports last night from Strasburg, 18 miles south of Winchester, having pursued the enemy about 30 miles from the battle-field. He has captured about 5,000.

The proper law is astropated at 7,000. prisoners. The enemy's loss is estimated at 7,000, and three rebel Generals killed—Rhodes, Goodwin and Gerden; five wounded—Torry, Haines, Fitz Lee, Bradley Johnson and Ranson. We took 4,000 stand of small arms and five pieces of artillery.—
Fifteen flags have fallen into our hands.

E. M. STANTON.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton:—Sheridan has again beaten Early at Fisher's Hill, capturing six guns and many prisoners. This in all probability is the finale [Signed] J. D. Strever.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, September 24.

To Maj. Geo. Dix:—The following dispatch has just been received from Gen. Sheridan, detailing some of the particulars of the battle and victory at Fisher's Hill:

HEADQUARTERS MIDDLE DIVISION.)
Woodstock, Va., Sept. 24.
Lieut. Gen. Grant, City Point:—I can not, as yet.
define an account of the result of the battle of yes-Our loss is slight. Gen. Crook struck the left flank of the enemy, and advanced down their lines. Ricketts' Division of 4th Army Corps swung in and joined Crook's, Getty's and Wheaton's divis-ions. The same movement was followed by the whole line, and attacking beautifully, carried the flanks of the enemy. The rebels threw down their arms and fied in great confusion, abandoning most of their artillery. It was dark before the battle ended. I pursued on after the enemy during the night to this point, with the 6th and 19th Corps, and ave stopped here to rest my men and issue rations.

If Gen. Foskett has pushed down Luray Valley according to my direction, he will achieve great realts. I don't think there ever was an army so bad-routed. The Valley is full of men who are hid-ag away and going to their homes. I can not give a estimate of prisoners. I pushed on, regardless of verything. The number of pieces already reported aptured is 16. P. H. SHERIDAN, Maj. Gen. You are directed to cause a national salute of one nundred great guns for the victory. Gen. Stevenson reports that 3,500 prisoners from the field had reached Winchester last night. Reinforcements and supplies have been forwarded to Gen. Sheridan. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

mportant Letter from General Wool.

ditor of the New York Times: In an hour like this, when the very existence of republic is at stake, the opinions of such a man is General John E. Wool have deep interest and ignificance. I send you an extract from a letter ust received from that distinguished patriot in rerence to the pending issues:

"I was more than delighted with the views you ntertain in regard to the election of McClellan to be Presidency of the United State. You have said subfully that his election means the trailing of our ig in the dust before its enemies, the entire suberviency of the North to the South; and you night have added the surrender of the United tates to Jefferson Davis and his Government.—
That such is the intention, if they succeed in the lection of McClellan, of the leaders of this wideerend conspiracy of peacemakers, there cannot be e shadow of a doubt. It extends over the North well as the South. Its influence is seen and felt every town and hamlet throughout the land, its its headquarters in Canada, stimulated and enuraged by the three Presidential factions in the epublican ranks, which appears to have paralyzed whole party.

The conspirators have taken advantage of this ence and apathy of the Republicans, who have itherto professed to be supporters of the war, and ave not failed to add to their ranks the weak, the aid and cowardly of the Republican party, as ell as of the Democratic party. Within the last to days, however, the Republicans have been mewhat roused from their lethargy by the resent occesses of Major General Sherman. Nothing, for ight that I can discover, will save the Union and successes of Grant, Sherin, Farragut and Sheridan.

on, Farragut and Sheridan.

These successes may rouse the people and preve our country; but nothing else, from present pearances, will save it from the danger with sich it is threatened. The perils of the Union are never greater than at the present moment. conspirators have secret associations, whose nbers are scattered ever the land, using every embers are scattered ever the land, using every eans in their power to alarm and frighten the ig-erant and timid. They are also distributed roughout the army and navy of the United ates and exerting all their powers to induce those he have the privilege of veting to cast their votes of McClellan, who is represented to be popular ith the rank and file. At a future day I may essent facts which will substantiate all I have said regard to this dangerous conspiracy and their exention and their candidate for the Presidency. It was not the sword of Casar that destroyed the erty of Rome, but the demagogues that througed forum with souls dead to their country's honor, spotted with corruption.

Foote for McClellan.

Henry S. Foote, the political weather-cock, who represents the Nashville District in the Richmond Congress by his own appointment, is out in the Richmond Whig in favor of the nominees of Chicago. He says the Chicago platform does not contain the most remote hint of intended constraint of any kind," and that "there is nothing in it which ought to alarm or offend the rebels." This is a peculiarity of the platform that was remarked before Foote called attention to it. We have no doubt but Foote was concorned at Richmond in preparing the first draft of it, for it originated there and was sent through by way of the Clifton House in Can-Valley. Nay, it has rained the rebels, and demor- adm. It was drafted by rebels for the adoption of allied, scattered, and used up the flower of Leo's ar- rebels, and it could but be acceptable to rebels and Foote adds, that if McClellan is elected the States Rights Domocracy of the North will be allowed to settle the terms of peace and the time." If not elected, he says the Northern Democracy will revolutionize, or, to use his own words, "they will submit to the strocious despotism organized at Wash. Rebel Atrocities.

Those who think we are accasionally violent, and for Lincoln and Johnson exhibit a bloody spirit towards robels, are invited to read the communication of a Federal officer, over the signature of "H," giving details-but in partof Wheeler as they passed through Andreas a county. North of here. We utterly protest against the taking of any such men prisoners. They are savages, beasts of the forest, cowardly assassins, and "Imps of Hell" that Milton saw afar off. They ought to be butchered like dogs, and destroyed like hateful reptiles, wherever overtaken. And the men, all through this section, who gave these thieves and murderers information of the whereabouts of Union men who had money, horses and mules, and caused them to be foraged upon and ruined, ought quietly to be shot down and hanged in the woods, and in cases where they have taken the amnesty onth they ought to be quartered after they are killed!

Union Presbytery.

Presbytery of Union met in Spring Place Church, Knox county, Tennessee, September 2d, 1864, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and was opened with a sermon from Rev. Horace Bushnell, of the Presbytery of Madison, Indians, from 1 Cor. 1: 23-24.

Presbytery took recess till 11 o'clock, P. M. After recess Presbytery was called to order. The roll was called and the following members were found to be present. Ministers-Rev. Messrs. Wm. Harrison, R. E. Tedford and T. J. Lamar. Elders-John Caldwell, Benjamin A. Blackburn, J. L. Foust, Gaines McMillan, James McMillan, J. H. Blackburn, H. F. Crawford, John Knex, R. H. Culton and James Boyd.

Minutes of the last stated meeting were read. The resolutions passed at the last meeting of Presbytery, imposing new tests of licensure, ordination and membership, was brought up, and the Moderator appointed John Caldwell, Gaines McMillan and Rev. T. J. Lamar a committee to draft a resolution in reference to it.

On motion, the Moderator appointed Rev. William Harrison, Wm. H. Lyle and J. S. Foust a committee to draft a minute concerning the death of the Rev. G. S. White and Win. Minis, D. D. On motion, Presbytery adjourned to meet to-mor-ow morning at 84 o'clock. Saturday morning, 81 o'clock, Presbytery met.

The committee to whom was referred the resolution imposing new tests of licensure, ordination and membership, made the following report:

WHEREAS, Presbytery, at its last regular meeting, held in New Market, 1868, passed the following solution, to-wit:
Resolved, That this Presbytery will neither license, rdain, nor receive from another Presbytery, any man who does not sympathize with the South in her present struggle for independence, or who holds that slaveholding is sinful and ought to be abolished;

Whereas. This resolution is an abitrary and unwaranted stretch of power, and an usurpation of the prerogatives which belong to the Lord Jesus Christ alone, as the supreme head of the church, inasmuch as it imposes tests or terms of licensure, ordination and membership, which are novel and without any warrant, either from the word of God, Confession of Faith, or uniform practice of the Presbyterian church, but is in direct conflict therewith, and is therefore subversive of the good order, peace and purity of the church; and

Whereas. This resolution is a shameful and inexcusable apostacy from the principles of patriotism and universal freedom to which the Pre-byterian rch in its long, varied, and honorable history has steadfastly adhered; and Whereas, This resolution may, and doubtless does express the sentiments and views of a large majority of the members belonging to Presbytery, yet the same is heartily condemned and severely consured by a very large majority of the churches under its

Resolved, That the said resolution be, and the same is hereby deemed and held to be inoperative, null

Resolved. That we deeply regact and lament that so many of our brethren have been so far forgetful of the imperative demands of patriotism, justice and humanity, as to range themselves on the side of wrong and injustice, and against their country and freedom; and we sincerely hope that they will re-consider their action, be brought to see their great error, and abandon principles which are evidently at war with christianity, civilization and humanity.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted The committee appointed to draft a minute respecting the death of the Rev. G. S. White and Wm. Minis, D. D., made the following report .

Whereas, It hath pleased Almighty God to renever therefore,

Resolved, That we as a Presbytery deeply mourn over our loss, and especially do we feel that our loss is great in these times when there are so few to stand upon the walls of Zion. Resolved, That he heartily approve of their min-isterial life, being men able, faithful and zealous, rightly dividing the word, and ever ready to main-tain the honor of the Redeemer's kingdom.

Resolved, That while we mourn and feel that our loss is great, yet we are not without hope—not without hope as to the church in this country, for we remember that the Redeemer hath said that he we remember that the Redeemer hath said that he will build his church upon a rock, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it; nor are we without hope as to the dear brethren themselves, for we feel that our loss has been their gain, and that having been wise, and having turned many to righteousness, they are gone to shine as the brightness of the firmament, and as the stars forever and ever.

Resolved, That we will endeavor to walk in their footsters as for as they followed Christ and we will footsteps as far as they followed Christ, and we will bear in mind that what we do for the cause of Christ must be done quickly, that we will be faithful as servants of the living God, to push forward the cause of truth over the head of every opposition.

The report was adopted.

Rev. Henry Cherry presented a letter of dismission from the Congregational Association of Kalamassao, and was received as a member of this body. A petition was presented by James McMillan and H. F. Crawford, elders from Caladonia and Washington churches, that Presbytery does, at its present session, ordain Mr. Wm. H. Lyle to the of. fice of the gospel ministery.

Rev. J. M. Elliott was appointed to preach the ordination sermon, and Rev. Henry Cherry was appointed to deliver the charge. from Mat. 20:6: "Why stand ye here all the day idle.

bytery and prayer. = After ordination Rev. Henry Cherry delivered the charge to the newly ordained minister.

Presbytery took recess till 2 o'clock.

After recess Presbytery met. The following resolutions respecting our ecclesiastical relation were offered:

Whereas, Prosbytery is convinced that its interests are not likely to be promoted by a continuation of its connection with the United Synod of the Preshyterian church; therefore,

Resided, That the connection of the Presbytery with said Synod be, and the same is now hereby dis-

Resolved. That this Presbytery, at the kind solicitation and request of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, from which it withdrew in 1858, presented through the Rev. J. W. Elliott, does now return to that body. The resolutions were adopted unanimously.

Prosbytery adjoured to meet in Washington fore 2d Sabbath of April, 1805, at 11 a clock A. Closed with prayer.
